Recap of WCC Nov Meeting

New Day Care

Pastor Keith O'Neal announced the opening of the new Destiny Christian Center. They are open from 6am—6pm and have an enrollment special of $75/week.

Minority Health Coalition

The Minority Health Coalition has recently focused on helping others become tobacco-free. On November 21, they participated in the Great American Smoke-Out, where people committed to not smoke just for the day. We hope it was a success! Reach out to them for more information about coming tobacco-free.

Habitat for Humanity

Habitat for Humanity was warmly thanked at the November WCC meeting. In total, they have helped with about 50 homes in Whitely and also built the new tool shed for the Tool Loan Program. They, along with Muncie Housing Authority and IU Health Ball Memorial Hospital, were presented with a plaque to thank them for all of their appreciated hard work.

Share The Story of Whitely

Hobie Crase, a student, is creating a documentary about Whitely and needs input and personal stories from the community members who live in and love Whitely. If you would like to share your stories, call 502-641-0914 or email hobiecrase@gmail.com.

Over the Holiday Break...

The Maring Hunt Library will have a New Year's Craft (Ages 3+) on Tuesday, December 31 all day (New Year's themed).

Active Seniors

Motivate Our Minds (MOMs) has created a new program called Seniors Be Active. Seniors meet at 1pm—2:45pm on the first and third Wednesday of the month to do fun activities.

Animal Rhymes and Letter Fun Times

The locally-loved book by Judy Mays and Dr. Maude Jennings was read by Representative Bill Crawford. He loved it! The book was sold at the Buley Book Fair in November. Now, they are trying to get an ISBN number put on the book, so that it can be shared with a larger audience.

Immersive Learning/ Community Class

Eva's Immersive Learning class has committed to helping raise money for the Shaffer Chapel fundraiser. The goal is $60,000, and as of November 11, just over half of that had been raised. Funds will be used to improve and update the front steps and make the entry handicap accessible.

Reality Store 2014

The Reality Store program that taught financial literacy to school-aged kids and adults, will be coming back in Spring 2014. The Honors class that helped out earlier this year will dedicate their time again to make it another great success.
